Hurley Mountain Highway

HMHBand) is a Cornwall, NY based acoustic-electric quartet that plays the finest '60s and '70s (and beyond) pop-rock music around. HMHBand guarantees you'll be dancing and singing along to our "Feel-Good Music"! We play the tunes you grew up with...the ones you remember driving around to...listening and singing with your car's AM radio blasting at full volume, and the windows rolled down. It's the best "feel-good" pop-rock music around from AMERICA, Firefall, Peter Frampton, King Harvest, Bob Dylan, The Byrds, Badfinger, The Band, Elton John, The Doobie Brothers, Eagles, Steely Dan, Joe Walsh, Santana, and more from the best pop-rock musicians and bands of the '60s and '70s...and beyond!

MONDAY 12:00 – 3:00

Eric Erickson

Woodstock's "EXTRA-sensitive Singer/ Songwriter," Eric plays original and familiar songs. While the comparison of Eric's vocal style to that of James Taylor is inevitable---"It's no coincidence," says Eric---he hastens to add, "I hope that people will also find a trace of Lowell George, Tim Buckley, Pete Seeger, and maybe even a little Randy Newman!" The list of performers with whom Eric has shared the stage includes Pete Seeger, Livingston Taylor, Suzanne Vega, John Hall, Happy and Artie Traum, acoustic guitar master Adrian Legg, Priscilla Herdman, Rick Danko of the Band, Tom Chapin, Ronnie Gilbert of the Weavers and the British group Fairport Convention.
